Board of Youth Ministry

The Next Chapter youth group of Hope, St. John, and Crown of Life has been meeting on Monday evenings unless there is a school vacation for holidays or vacation days for Morgan and Jacob Pralle, the leaders of the group.

Many youth took part in the Advent and Christmas services by serving as acolytes, singing and speaking in the Cantata, filling and handing out Christmas bags on Christmas Eve.

Arch Books have been ordered to give out on Christmas Eve and on Easter Saturday to children who come for Easter bags.

The South Idaho Youth Leaders met on a zoom chat January 11. There were eight of us from Grace in Pocatello, Hope, Camp Perkins, Friendship Celebration in Meridian, and one other church near Boise. Around fifty kids are planning to go to the junior high retreat at Camp Perkins January 26-28.

Board of Property

Winter preparations:

- Ice melt was added to snow shovel boot trays throughout the building during Thanksgiving school break due to snow threat.
- Four additional boot trays were purchased so all shovels and ice melt are on a boot tray. Trays by two sets of red doors in the school are red in color. A grey tray will be placed in the gym by the doors to the Early Childhood play area. The final grey tray will be placed by the east sanctuary doors. There is one extra tray in case any of the trays need to be replaced.
- Top Notch Lawn and Landscaping cost for mid-day snow removal from sidewalks around church and school during day-time snow events will cost $100 per event. If snow exceeds 2", the cost will increase. The headmaster must call Top Notch by no later than noon and all cars must be moved away from the sidewalks during entire time the sidewalk snow removal occurs. A maximum budget of $800 dollars will be allotted for daytime removal. If that budget is expended before spring arrives, staff and volunteers will need to do daytime snow removal for the balance of the winter.
- Working closely with the Day School Board on the sidewalk issue above and the need for the school to keep all doorways to the fenced grounds on the east and north sides of the building clear of snow so doors will open in the event of a safety or security evacuation. The east doors in the gym are a big concern as the doors must open outward and the walkway to the man-gate kept clear of snow. Note, contracted snow removal company does the unfenced areas – parking lots and south and west sidewalks.

Building maintenance:

- Holden Electric serviced all 10 furnaces, changed filters that were dirty, installed low profile LED tube fixture in large storage area off north-side of gym.
- First Street Plumbing checked ease of operation of entire building water shutoff plus all sink, toilet, and water heater shutoffs in the building, cleared kindergarten sink drain of obstruction beyond the trap (no idea what it was but it is gone now), and cleaned drains in kitchen sinks to the junction with the parking lot branch of sewer line. Do this each year as preventive maintenance. In early January First Street Plumbing rebuilt the urinal in the boys' bathroom as it started to leak.
- A-1 Pest Control completed insect spraying in all school classrooms, bathrooms, exterior door thresholds, gym, and kitchen.
- Sacristy doorstop replaced to stop damage to vinyl flooring.
- Hope Lutheran Church and School (HLCS) building and school van insurance policy reviewed with our insurance agent to ensure coverage is adequate. Issues discussed will be presented to the Board of Directors for their insights and guidance.

Sanctuary Audio-Visual upgrade:

Christopher and Nancy met with DbTronix at the church in later December to discuss the current state of our system. Engagement letter signed with DbTronix to evaluate current audio-visual equipment in sanctuary with goal of updating wiring and replacing outdated components to provide system stability and reliability and then determine equipment needs for quality livestreaming of services.

Policy Manual:

Proposed additions and updates to Policy Manual for HLCS in Section 5.1, HLCS Property and Facility Use, presented to the Board of Directors for their review and guidance.

Strategic Planning Committee

The Strategic Planning Committee (SPC) is still somewhat in a holding pattern awaiting deliverables. However, a draft two-year (July 2021 - June 2022, July 2022 - June 2023 for the school and January 2021 - December 2022, January 2023 - December 2023 for the church) revenue stream document was forwarded to Mike Madison of the Lutheran Church Extension Fund (LCEF) towards the end of December. Upon finalization of the accounting books for fiscal year 2023, a more refined revenue/expense document will be forwarded to Mike. Both revenue and expense information are required for LCEF to provide a reasonable estimate for projected construction (short term) and mortgage (long term) financing should the voters approve implementation of a building project.

Towards the end of this month (January), artist's 3-D renderings of the proposed concept should be delivered to Marla Morgan (architect). With financing information from LCEF and the artist's 3-D renderings in hand, the SPC will be ready to move forward with an informational Q&A session for the congregation.

Fellowship Committee

A report was not submitted.

Safety Committee

The Safety Committee has not met since the last voters' meeting.

Pastor's Report

Dear Members of Hope Lutheran,

Our readings in this latter half of Epiphany have been geared towards Jesus' calling of the disciples. Why would the Good and Perfect Shepherd do this? He doesn't NEED us, yet it is clearly his will to call and to send out sinful people to make his saving work known among the world.

We have heard this saving work, we have received it and been united with it in the waters of baptism and in, with, and under the bread and wine. We have heard the Law and Gospel of God's Word.

And so we, sinful and wrought with failure, do what? We gather in the Divine Service where He serves us from his bountiful goodness. And then we go...

We go to make his saving work known among the world. We make it known in our classes, in our servant opportunities, in our outreach and inreach, in our school, in our homes.

And we will stick our foot in our mouths, we will fail, we will wonder why we even bother since we only seem to push people away at times, rather than draw them closer. Why didn't you pick better people to do this? Why us?

Have you ever thought like this? I have.

Is there encouragement in such times? Yes, from the very same saving work of Jesus. Who died to wash away our sins, who rose to open eternal life for all, which includes sinners like us. And grateful again for the saving work of Jesus we might hear again the Lord's continual expressed desire that his people should go forth. So may we, cleansed by his grace and confident in the Spirit's work, not ours, to change hearts, go forth according to the Word of the Lord confident of his promise to work all things for good and to make all things new.

Thank you so much for your generous support and involvement in the work the Lord has given us to do at Hope Lutheran Church. We know we ask a lot, especially in regard to financial support for various ministries that seek to serve the neighbor or spread the Gospel. Please never feel obligated, please feel welcome to come and receive God's gifts for free. And please receive our thanks for the generous support you give freely and joyfully.

There are likely some big decisions on the horizon for Hope, that may include more requests for money and time, and, of course, prayer. Please be praying now that the Lord would establish the work of our hands and that His will would be done. And please know that the same truths apply as we approach these big possibilities: please do not feel obligated to give, please feel welcome to receive God's gifts among us for free, even as we thank you all for your generous support in whatever ways those may be. We are hopeful that upcoming news on a building project and staffing would be a blessing to the congregation, the school, and the community, and we are excited to tell you more about them shortly, so you can make an informed decision.

If you are new, or haven't yet found a place to plug-in, please consider if any of our weekly or monthly Bible Classes or servant events might be a blessing to you. As well as other various ways to serve the Lord: Choir, Acolyting, Slide Show Runners, Braille, Men for the readings, Altar Guild... These are all ways to get to know some of your brothers and sisters in the congregation, to grow, or serve. All of which are blessings.

My family and I are surviving on the hill-top for another winter and I thank God daily for "wife and child, house and home, land and animals (Well, except for the cats...)" and of course, for you, our Church family. It is a blessing to serve in your midst. Thank you for all the love and support you show us, and, of course, if you have criticisms for this sinful Pastor, please feel free to express them to me or you can let your elder know and they can bring it before the board in confidence. We want to hear from you. We want to bear with one another in the body, and we want any "root of bitterness" to be rooted out by God's Word, His grace, and reconciliation.

And it is to Him, "the only wise God," Father, Son and Holy Spirit, that all final thanks and praise go to. He has made us, he has redeemed us, and he alone will watch over his Church around the world and see us faithful to the end. God bless,

Pastor Pay

⁶ in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight. ⁷ Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and shun evil.
